

DADENLIMITED

Club Penguin – A Young Person's View

Note: This review of Club Penguin was written by Ruth Burden, an 11 year-old experienced Club Penguin user. Only the worst grammar and spelling mistakes have been corrected.

Club Penguin can be found at: www.clubpenguin.com

For more information about this and other worlds please contact info@daden.co.uk, visit www.daden.co.uk or IM Corro Moseley in Second Life.

1. What can you do on your own in this world?

Decorate your igloos, playing games, talk to other people, read books or the newspaper, hunt for things when things have been specially hidden, buy clothes and accessories, buy things for your puffles(pets), do secret agent missions.

2. What can you do with your friends in this world?

Play some of the games and everything else you can do on your own.

3. What makes this world different from other worlds?

It's quite small, it has a newspaper, all of it's in the same type of world, you can buy lots of things for your pets.

4. What are you 3 favourite things about this world?

- In the newspaper there are riddles and it tells you what's going on
- There's a wide choice of games
- You can do missions if your a secret agent but it's easy to become an agent.

5. What were the 3 things you least liked about this world?

- Even though there are lots of games there's not much else to do
- The games get boring after a while
- You can only talk to your friends if you can see them.

6. How old were you when you played in this world the most? 10

Written by: Ruth Burden

© 2007 Daden Limited