

DADENLIMITED

Disney's Toontown – A Young Person's View

Note: This review of Toontown was written by Ruth Burden, an 11 year-old experienced virtual world user. Only the worst grammar and spelling mistakes have been corrected.

Toontown can be found at <http://play.toontown.com/> and is run by Disney.

For more information about this and other virtual worlds please contact info@daden.co.uk, visit www.daden.co.uk or IM Corro Moseley in Second Life.

1. What can you do on your own in this world?

Fight these evil people called cogs, do tasks for the Toontown HQ, play games, go fishing, explore, take over cog buildings, buy stuff for you or your friends, play with your doodle(pet).

2. What can you do with your friends in this world?

Most of the same things only i've never had a proper friend [in Toontown] to do things with.

3. What makes this world different from other worlds?

It's cartoony, you can be all sorts of different animals, its quite funny.

4. What are you 3 favourite things about this world?

- There are lots of different games.
- It's quite big.
- There are lots of different tasks.

5. What were the 3 things you least liked about this world?

- You can't choose what game you want to play.
- You can only see the parts of the world you've actually been in.

6. How old were you when you played in this world the most? 11

Written by: Ruth Burden

© 2007 Daden Limited